Peer pressure is when someone feels like they need to make a choice they aren't comfortable with in order to fit in, or to please someone. In The Pigman, there are a lot of examples of peer pressure. In this novel, some of that pressure comes from family, not just friends. Fill in the web with examples from the novel where characters are pressured to make a decision they aren't entirely comfortable with.

Timeline

The Pigman starts at the end. John and Lorraine write their version of events about their time with the Pigman. We start at the end with The Oath, because we learn right away that the Pigman is dead. Using the timeline below, create an accurate timeline of events (remembering that The Oath comes at the very end, instead of at the beginning).
