Brother vs. Sister

Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert are siblings and residents of Green Gables farm. They are two compelling and important characters in Anne of Green Gables. The similarities and differences between them help to shape Anne's personality in many ways as she grows and learns about life in Avonlea. Use the organizer below to compare both Matthew and Marilla. Record items that make them similar. Write down the things that make the siblings different.

Avonlea's Short Story Contest

The village of Avonlea has decided to make Anne's Story Club an official contest for any residents who want to improve their writing skills. Each week residents will submit stories to the local newspaper and the locals get to vote on their favorite one. The winner each week will get their story published as a full page in the newspaper! Use the newspaper template below to write your short story. Use a descriptive writing style similar to how Anne would write her stories. Use your imagination and good luck!
