Thriving on the Job

You've got a job! Great work! The hard part may be coming. You need to be a good employee. There are many things you can do that will help you get noticed. Your boss will like your hard work. These tips will help your day go more smoothly. Your co-workers will appreciate you more and so will your customers!

BE ON TIME:

The best way to start a day at work is to be on time. Some people say that you're late if you are there right on time. They feel that five minutes early is the right time!

BE PREPARED:

What exactly is your job? You need to find out what has to be done. What is your responsibility? Ask your boss if you're not sure. Once you know your role, you won't have to ask. This will get you a reputation of being reliable.

BE SOCIABLE:

It's important to get along with your co-workers. You should always be friendly. Be sure that you aren't too casual. You don't want to ignore your duties. Your work ethics will be rewarded.

Logan works at a coffee shop. There are no customers. He has cleaned the sink. Instead of doing nothing, he wiped tables. His boss gave him an extra break for good work!

1. Order the events for a work day.

- ___ a) Clean the floors.
 ___ b) Get to work five minutes early.
 ___ c) Say hello to your co-workers.
 ___ d) Serve customers.
 ___ e) Clock out.

Communicating with Peers & Supervisors

1. List three ways a co-worker can make a job better.

2. Answer the questions about good co-worker protocol.

- a) Two co-workers are in an argument. You should:

- A Pick a side.
 B Tell them they are both silly.
 C Say you're not getting involved.
 D Tell your boss.

- b) You see your co-worker taking money from the cash register. You should:

- A Tell your boss.
 B Loan them money.
 C Ignore it.
 D Yell at your co-worker.

Volunteering

3. Hailey is volunteering at a doctor's office. She was asked to work with a patient who made her uncomfortable. What can she do?

Graphic Organizer

4. Use the graphic organizer on page 36 to match skills with charities.

What are you good at? How can you best help others? These are all things to think about before you volunteer. Is there a place you've always wanted to learn more about? Did a friend tell you about a great experience they had? It can be hard to decide where you want to donate your time. A good way to organize your thoughts is with a diagram.

When you have a visual organizer, your choice will be clear. In the tree diagram, you will think about your choices. What are you passionate about? These will be at the top level. Examples may be animals, playing music, or sports. From each of these, draw a line. Think of some charities around you. Where can you use that skill? Who helps that group of people? Who else loves animals? You will write those underneath your skills. You should have lots of ideas of where to help when you're done. Get out there! Have fun!
