

Touch the word that best completes the sentence.

A) The first part of a book report is the introduction.

conclusion

introduction

body

subheading

B) The setting is the time and place the story takes place.

characters

theme setting

plot

C) The plot is what happens in the story.

characters

theme

setting

plot

WELL DONE!

- Introduction – the first part of the book report. An introduction should include the title (name) and author (writer) of the book you read; why you chose the book; and the kind of story the book tells.

- Body – the section of the book report in which you describe the main parts of a story: theme, plot, setting, and characters. The theme is the main idea of the story. The setting is the time and place of the story. The plot is what happens in the story. The characters are who the story is about.

- Conclusion – the summary of your book report. You may want to give your opinion of the book and the most important things you want other people to know about it

The Writing Watch Dog says...

(touch the image to enlarge)

PULL

Book Reports

Introduction

Body

Conclusion

Theme

Plot

Setting

Characters

The plot is what happens in the story.

Do you enjoy happy endings? If so, The Bad Beginning by Lemony Snicket is a book you'll want to avoid. This is a story with a bad beginning, a bad middle, and a bad ending.

The Bad Beginning is a story about the suffering of three orphaned children at the hands of their uncle, Count Olaf. Although Violet, Klaus, and Sunny are the inheritors of a huge fortune, they cannot claim the money until they are older. For now, they must live with Olaf and cook and clean for him and his theater friends, who try to take the fortune from the three children.

Will Olaf's evil plot win out? Or will these three crafty kids outwit him? If you're not afraid of a little misery and a whole lot of mischief, then I recommend you read this story and find out for yourself.

Reset