The Writing Watch Dog says,

“Make sure that you choose a book that interests you, take notes while you read it, and then write a great book report to share the book with your friends and classmates. You will have a great sense of accomplishment when you’re finished.”

Proofreading the Form of a Book Report

The book Charlotte's Web by E.B. White is a story about childhood, friendship and loyalty. Published in 1952, this animal fiction story became a Newbery Honor winner in 1953.

The story takes place on a farm, where a little girl named Fern saves a young piglets life. This piglet, named Wilbur, befriends a spider named Charlotte. When Wilbur learns what his fate will be when Winter comes, Charlotte is determined to save his life. She does this by writing messages in her web.

Overall I really enjoyed this book. I thought the themes of friendship and loyalty was very inspirational.
