

Which statements are Facts and which statements are Opinions?

FACT

/ OPINION

A) Math is the easiest subject.

FACT

/ OPINION

B) I really enjoyed the baseball game last night.

FACT

/ OPINION

C) Brazil is located on the continent of South America.

FACT

/ OPINION

D) Doctors recommend that you drink eight glasses of water every day.

FACT

/ OPINION

E) He is the best basketball player of all time.

WELL DONE!

Fact and Opinion Tree Chart

Reset

A Narrow Miss

Life was very exciting at Mills Elementary School yesterday morning. A car bro into the fence and ran into the wall at the front of the school. No one was injured, but all 300 students had racing hearts. The accident happened at 8:25 a.m. A nearly new SUV driven by Ken Smith fell into the school wall with Smith fell asleep at the wheel. "I'm ashamed," Smith said. "I must be the dumbest driver in the world!"

WELL DONE!

A Narrow Miss

happened at 8:25 a.m.

all 300 students had racing hearts

the dumbest driver in the world

Smith fell asleep at the wheel

It cannot be proven that the driver is the dumbest.

The time of the accident can be proven.

It cannot be proven that all students' hearts were racing.

The driver falling asleep can be proven.

Which of the following is a fact?

- A) South America is located below the equator.
- B) South America is the #1 vacation spot.
- C) South America is the hottest continent on Earth.

WELL DONE!

Open Discussion:

What are some key words that will tell you if a statement is an opinion rather than a fact?

