

Conclusions Chart

Buffalo are members of the cattle family. At one time, huge herds of buffalo roamed the Great Plains. The Native Americans of the Great Plains did not waste any part of the buffalo. They

ate th

Instructions

Close X

Read the passage about Buffalo.

Seven statements are highlighted.

Three are facts that support the conclusion drawn from the passage.

Drag the correct facts to the appropriate column of the conclusions chart graphic organizer to reveal the conclusion.

Reset

Conclusion

Conclusions Chart

Buffalo are members of the cattle family. At one time, huge herds of buffalo roamed the Great Plains. The Native Americans of the Great Plains did not waste any part of the buffalo. They ate the meat and made clothes and tents from hides and fur. They also carved buffalo horns into tools. The Natives of the Great Plains had great respect for the buffalo.

Fact

made clothes and tents
from hides and fur

Fact

(label)

Fact

(label)

Reset

Conclusion

Conclusions Chart

Buffalo are members of the cattle family. At one time, huge herds of buffalo roamed the Great Plains. The Native Americans of the Great Plains ate the meat and carved buffalo horns into tools. They also made clothes and tents from hides and fur. The Natives of the Great Plains had great respect for the buffalo.

WELL DONE!

Fact

made clothes
and tents
from hides
and fur

Fact

ate the meat

Fact

carved buffalo horns into tools

Reset

Conclusion

The buffalo is very important to the way of life for the Native Americans of the Great Plains.