Decision Tree

You and a friend are walking home from school on a warm afternoon when you come to a fork in the road. The road to the left takes you through a forest and will take you longer to get to your house. The road to the right is quicker, but takes you through a construction site.

Do you:

GO LEFT

GO RIGHT

Do you:

CLIMB THE LADDER

CONTINUE ON THE PATH

Do you:

CLIMB BACK DOWN

CONTINUE CLIMBING UP

You both make your way up the ladder, reaching the tree fort just in time to hear it break under your feet. You now find yourselves stranded with no way to get down.
