

Look at the following circle graph, then answer the following questions.

a) How many students chose soccer?

b) How many students chose basketball?

c) How many more students chose baseball than volleyball?  more

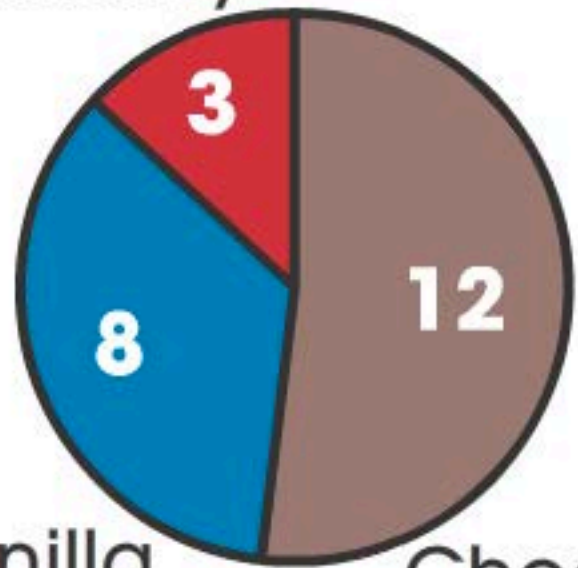

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 0

Circle graphs can be used to describe and compare data. For example, look at the circle graph and then answer the following questions.

Strawberry

Vanilla

Chocolate

How many of the vanilla ice cream flavor was sold?

3 of which flavor of ice cream was sold?

Mrs. Henderson hands out a package of Gummy Bears among the students in her class. The circle graph to the right shows the number and color of Gummy Bears in the package. Which color of Gummy Bear does the class have the least of?

red      blue      yellow      green

Touch for Solution