

What Are Organs and Organ Systems?

Drag the correct words to its definition below.

excretory system

muscular system

circulatory system

reproductive system

a) Creates or reproduces life.

digestive system

b) Helps us to eat and to get nutrition from our food.

c) Makes it possible for you to throw a ball or jump over a hole in the sidewalk.

d) Helps keep our body clean by removing waste materials.

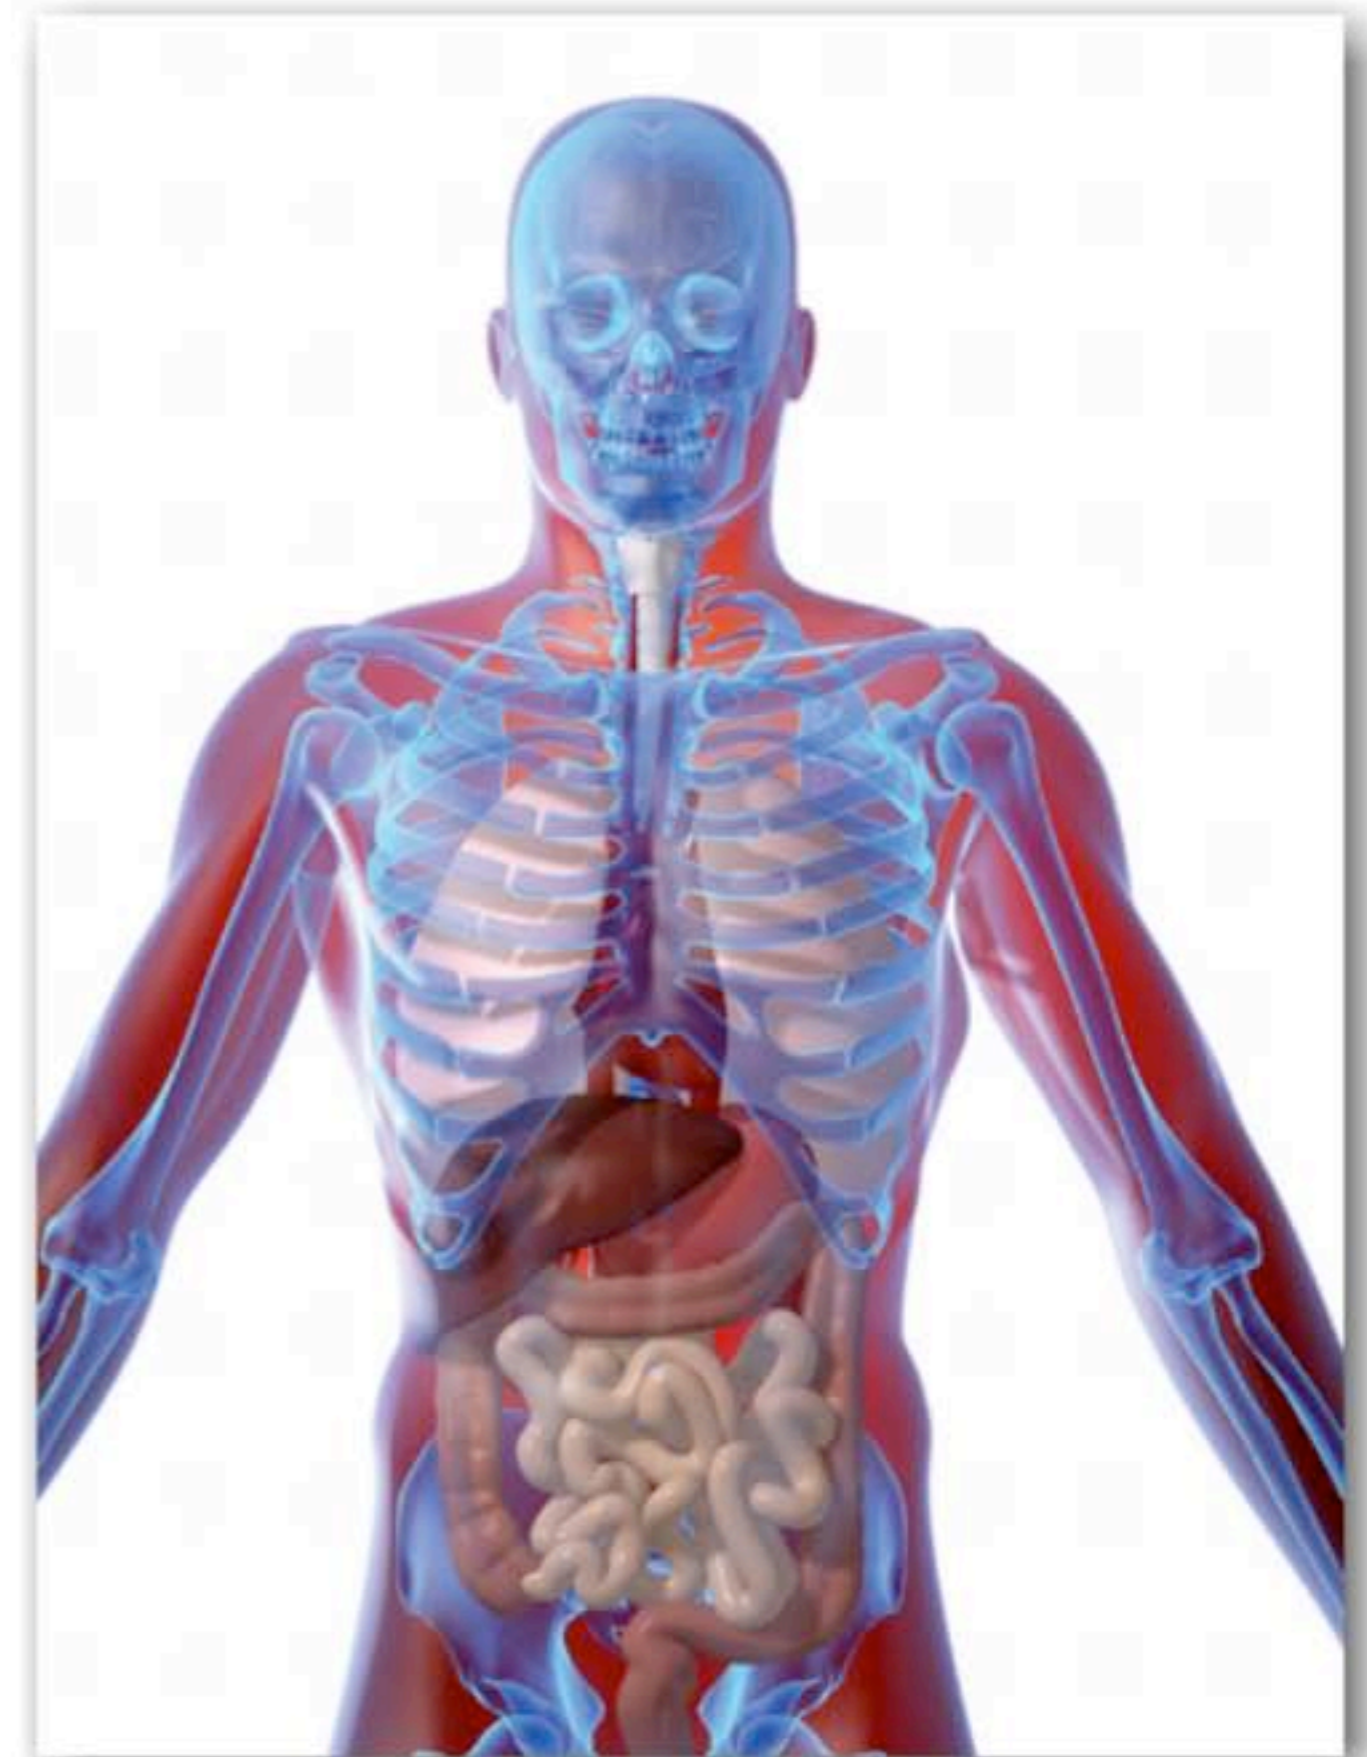

e) Moves our blood through our body (the heart is an important part of this system).

What Are Organs and Organ Systems?

Groups of tissue that work together join to form the many different organs in the human body. These organs include the liver, kidneys, heart and eyes. Even our skin is an organ. In fact, did you know that the skin is the largest organ in the human body?

Organs that work together, join to form organ systems. There are eight major organ systems in the human body. Read about them in the chart below.

Organ Systems Memory Match Game

Digestive

Circulatory

Respiratory

Muscular

Skeletal

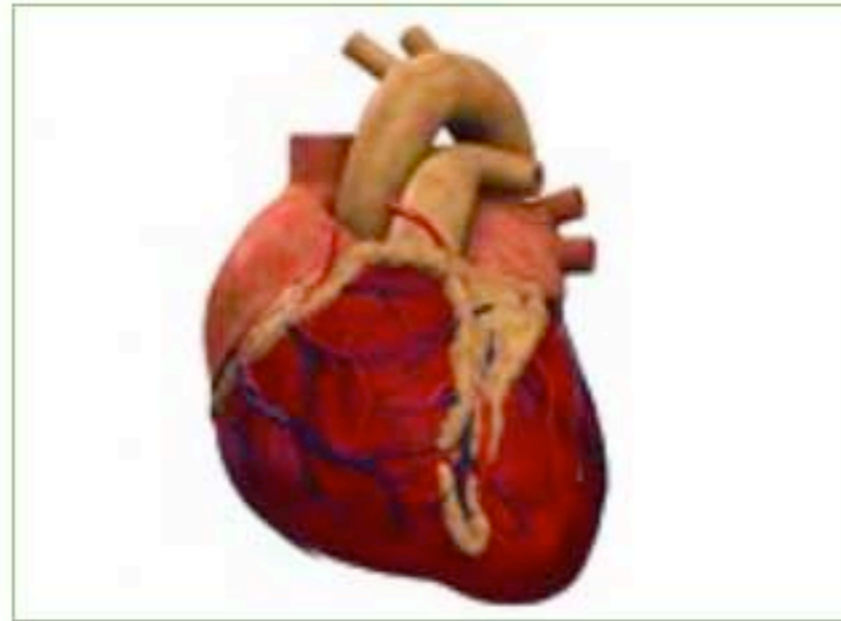

Nervous

Nervous

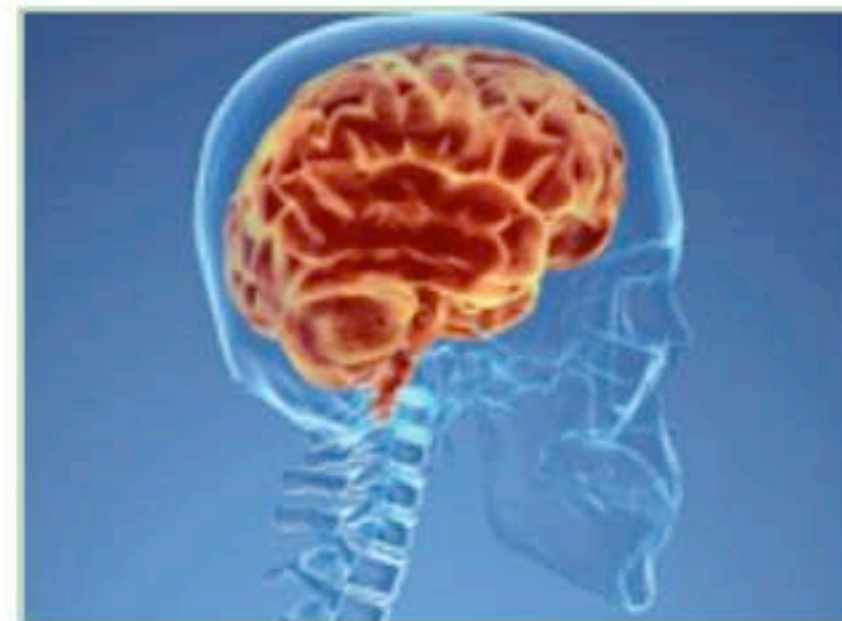

Digestive

Circulatory

Muscular

Respiratory

Skeletal