

ES

 Explore Online:

Look at a major city such as Toronto or New York. Look at a rural area in Nebraska, Saskatchewan, or your region. What differences do you see?

 Explore Offline:

Choose your continent below. Look at a major city and rural area in your continent. What differences do you see?

Europe

Touch here to see Urban & Rural Communities

Europe

Urban

London: contains about 1.1% of the total population of the continent. It has been a major city since it was settled by the Romans over 2000 years ago.

Rural

Germany: contains about 2.8% of the total population of the continent. 73% of the country consists of rural areas.

