Community Resources

You may have an emergency. You need to know how to get help. You may need help fast. You may need to do more than call 911. You should know where important places are. Sometimes you will need to get help yourself. Do you know where the nearest hospital is? What about the police station? Not every problem is an emergency. Do you have a cold? Don't call 911. You shouldn't ignore a problem. Take action!

Safety Tip

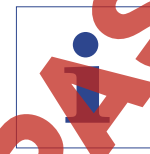

Look for these symbols to get help.

hospital

fire department

information

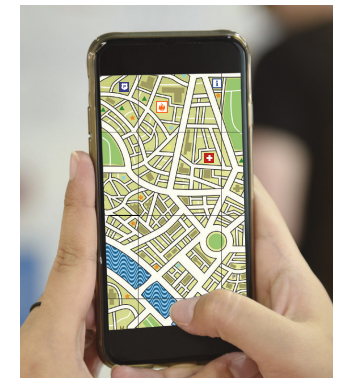

police station

Is there a problem at home? You must know who to call. Sometimes you can't fix it yourself. If you rent, call your landlord. They will fix something that is broken. For example, they will fix a leaky toilet. If you let a problem go on, it will get worse. Be proactive!

Abigail just moved to a new place. When she was moving, she lost her wallet. It could be anywhere. She didn't panic. Abigail went on her phone. She found a map of her city. She saw the symbol for a police station. That afternoon she went to the station and told them about her wallet. She filed a report. Easy!

1. Miguel's car was broken into. He must go to the police station to report it. What symbol should he look for on the map on his phone?

- A A red cross.
 B An orange fire.
 C A blue question mark.
 D A blue shield.

Community Resources

3. Diego's electricity went off in a storm. He has a headache. He has no running water to drink. List the three things he needs to do in the right order.

Graphic Organizer

4. Use the graphic organizer on page 12 to know what the services provided by the community can help with.

There are three important services in an emergency. They are the police, fire department and hospitals. In the chart, write what problems each one can help you with. For example, if you break a leg you should go to the hospital. Fill in the chart with examples of what each service can help you with.

Tourist in Your Own Town

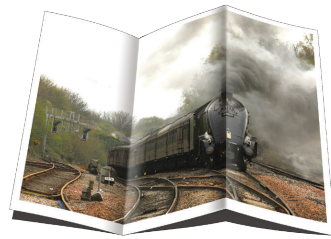

When we think of vacation we usually think of exotic places. When you have time off work, the first thing you may want to do is to plan a trip. Although going far away is great, it can cost a lot! What can you do if you can't afford a big trip? A staycation! This is when you spend your holiday at home. It is easy to save money this way. You will save money on plane tickets. At home, you can visit local places. You can eat in nearby restaurants. Visit a park! Every town has something special. Don't forget to look!

There are many great things you can do close to home. You only have to think a bit. You will save money staying close to home. If you have extra money, you could spend a night or two away. Does your town have a nice hotel? Is there is a cute bed and breakfast you can stay in? Don't spend too much money. Plan ahead to stretch your money. Be creative!

Your job is to make a brochure based on where you live. Pretend you are a visitor. What exciting things can people do? What is the weather like? What should they see? Where should they eat? Which things are free? What should they pack? Remember to add some pictures and eye-catching text. Add things that will be fun for everyone. Even if you don't like it, it could be nice for someone else. Be very specific!

The product should have at least three sections. It should also include:

- at least one place to stay
- two places to eat
- one fun thing to do
- one place to be outside

Learn to love your town. When you stay home, you will stay on budget. A local tourist will enjoy their town more. You may be surprised! Bon voyage!
