Home insurance is crucial to owning a home, it protects you from things beyond your control. For example, if a forest fire destroys your home, insurance will help you rebuild. Your monthly payments help protect you in case of a problem, even if it's years down the road.

Keeping your home in good shape and properly taken care of will pay off later. If you decide to sell your home, buyers will appreciate all your hard work. So, think twice before you complain about mowing the lawn!

What's in your toolbox? Are you prepared to do the maintenance on your living spaces? Do you have any idea of what needs to be done? Many small jobs around the house are easy to do on your own. There are many tutorials online that can show you what to do. In many instances, a bit of prevention can save a big problem down the road. For example, if you vacuum the coils of your refrigerator, it will work better and last longer! Cleaning chores also will help your things last longer.

On the graphic organizer, there are some common home maintenance tasks. It is also noted how often they should be done. There is also room to add. List things you know need to be done at your place, and when you would like to do it. It's time to clear that To-Do List!

Hot Wheels

Are you in the market for a new ride? Perhaps that new car you're eyeing is an electric model. Even if you have no intention of buying a car, think of one you might like to drive. You may like the look of it, but do you know what it would cost?

Choose a car to research. Many websites write consumer reports. These tell buyers what is exceptional about the car and what needs to be changed. For example, some cars rank high in safety but low in agility. What features in your car do you need for your lifestyle? Are you looking for something for all your friends to ride in? Or do you want something eco-friendly?

You will write your own consumer report on a car. It should be a one page, easy-to-read, info sheet. Be sure to include a photo of the car you wish to buy. Be as specific as possible. Your report should include:

- Name of the car.
- Different makes and models.
- Safety features.
- Interior options.
- Gas mileage.
- Price.
- Possible add-ons.

Is your car a great buy? Sometimes reviews can be negative. Simply gather the facts and put them together. Only you can decide if you and your ride will drive off into the sunset!
