Reading Passage

📖 When you are in a healthy relationship, you may decide to be physically intimate. Sex can involve a variety of acts, not just intercourse. No matter what sexual acts you decide to involve, it is important everyone is on the same page. You must get consent. What is consent? Consent is the agreement to participate in an activity. This means that for every sex act, each person must agree to be involved.

What is NOT consent?

- If someone is under the influence of a substance, like drugs or alcohol.
- If someone can't communicate effectively, like if they are not conscious.
- If someone is forced into an act, or says "no" at any time.
- If someone is guilted or pressured into an act.
