Reading Passage

When you are traveling, it helps to do this math when you see prices listed. For example, if you know that the exchange rate is 1.25, you can figure out the price. Look over your amount to make sure you won't have an account imbalance.

Exchange rate between ¥ Yen and $ USD = 0.0090%
Shoes at a Japan shop cost ¥10,000 x 0.0090 = $90 USD

Currency rates change daily. Be sure to use an app or check online for the exchange rate of the day. If you are traveling and looking to change money over, go to a bank. They usually offer the best rate. Be sure you are getting the best rate for your money!
