Music Scramble

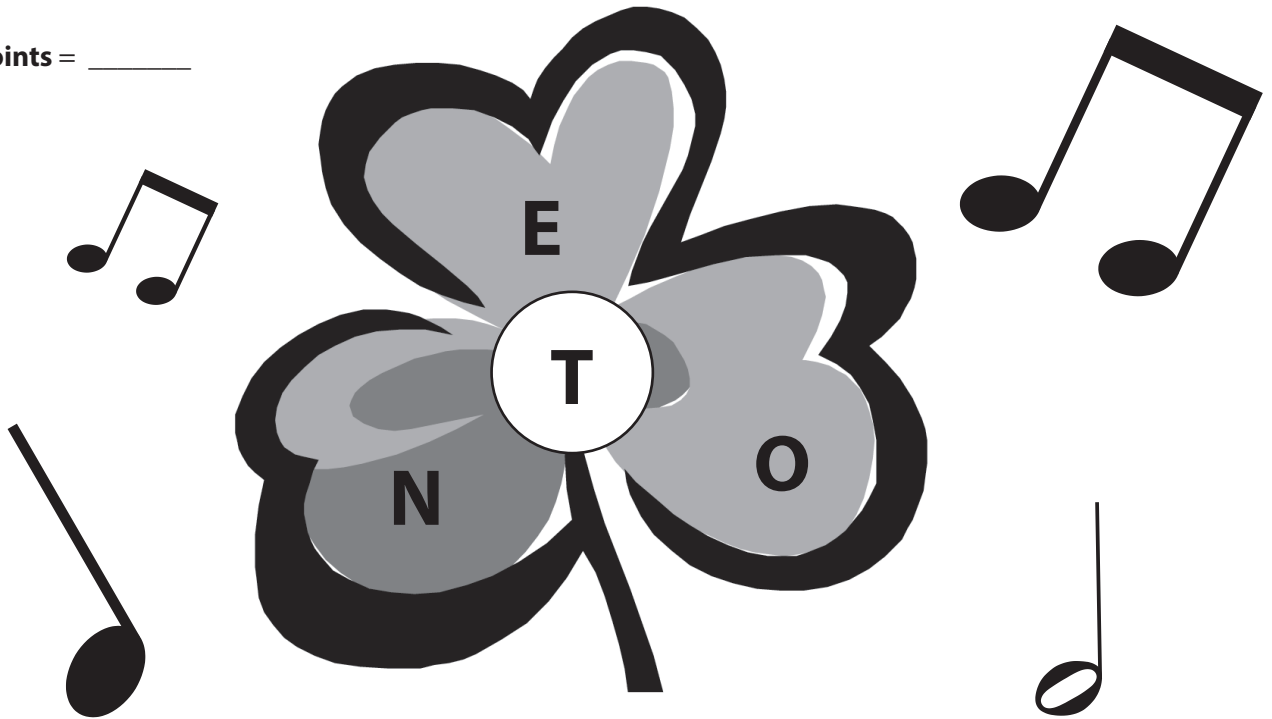

The four letters in the clover below spell an important word in music. Without this, no one would have much luck writing music. Do you know what it is?

Music word: _____

Now that you've solved that, see how many more words you can create using these four letters. Give yourself 2 points for each two-letter word, 3 points for each three-letter word, 4 points for each four-letter word, and 5 points for each five-letter word.

IMPORTANT: You may use each letter multiple times in the same word.

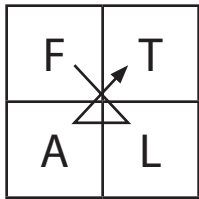

Total Points = _____

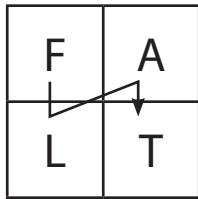

All in One Little Box

There are more than 20 music words hidden in the box below. See if you can find them! The rules: Each letter must touch the next letter in the word, and they can move left, right, up, down, or diagonally. A letter can only be repeated in a word if it appears in more than one touching box. For example:

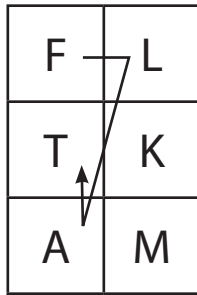

Good!

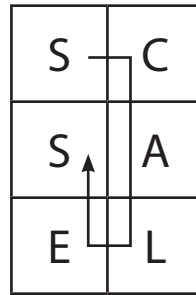

Good!

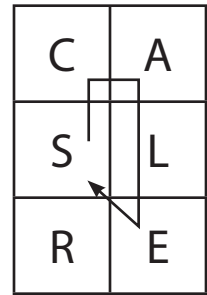

Wrong

Good!

Wrong

While you are looking for the music terms, keep an eye out for any other words that may be hidden. (There are more than 75!) List all your words in the blanks below.

It's Instrumental

First, unscramble the instruments listed below. Then, find each of the instruments in the word search. Look for them forward or backward on the vertical, horizontal, or diagonal.

BONUS: The term for the person who directs a large group of musicians, like an orchestra, band, or choir, is hidden in the puzzle below. See if you can find it!
