

Table of Contents

Correlation of Curriculum to Content iii
 Introduction iv

Section 1: Knowledge

Mixed-up Names (Recalling facts/Using reference sources).....1
 Classified Information (Classifying).....2
 Football Facts and Opinions (Discriminating between facts and opinions).....3
 Weather Forecast (Listing)4
 Could It Really Happen? (Distinguishing between real and fanciful).....5
 No Place Like Home (Writing definition and example paragraphs)6
 Outlines Help You Get Organized (Outlining and summarizing)7

Section II: Comprehension

Alike and Different (Comparing and contrasting)8
 New Words From Old (Identifying structure).....9
 From Words to Numbers and Numbers to Words (Translating between verbal material and mathematical terms).....10
 Building a Birdhouse (Steps in a process)11
 What Does It Represent? (Determining relationships between symbols and ideas).....14

Section III: Application

More Than One Meaning (Identifying changes in word meanings)15
 Don't Count Your Chickens (Understanding changes in word meanings).....16
 Order, Please (Ordering items)17
 More Than One Way to Sort (Ordering Items)18
 Adding Prefixes and Suffixes (Changing the meanings of words)19
 Sports' Time (Gathering data for a graph)20
 Two Kinds of Graphs (Preparing graphs)21

Section IV: Analysis

An Abundance of Analogies (Writing word analogies).....22
 Number Analogies (Writing mathematical analogies)23
 Trapped! (Choosing logical actions)24
 Cause and Effect (Distinguishing between cause and effect)25
 What's Missing? (Judging completeness).....26
 Scavenger Hunt (Determining relevancy).....27
 Is It Relevant? (Judging relevance)28
 General or Specific? (Determining abstract and concrete)29

Section V: Synthesis

Twins (Using deductive reasoning)30
 Logical Reasons For Rules (Writing logical reasons)31
 Looking for the Odds (Problem solving)32
 Batter Up! (Using synthesis)33
 And the Answer Is . . . 34! (Problem solving).....34
 Deal the Cards, Please (Proposing alternatives)35
 Who Should Do What? (Planning a project)36

Section VI: Evaluation

The Moral of the Story Is . . . (Identifying values)....37
 Just the Facts, Please (Evaluating for extraneous information)38
 More Than One Right Answer (Determining alternative criteria)39
 You Be the Judge (Writing specific criteria).....40
 What Should You Do (Making decisions)41

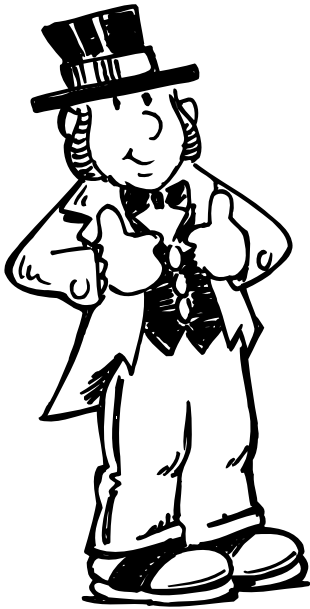

Answer Key42-44

Mixed-up Names

Marco alphabetized the names of the presidents and first ladies, but instead of alphabetizing the whole name, he alphabetized the first names and last names separately. Now they are all mixed up. Draw a line from the first name to the correct last name. Use a reference source like an almanac or encyclopedia if you need help.

Presidents

Abraham	Arthur
Benjamin	Coolidge
Calvin	Fillmore
Chester	Harrison
George	Jefferson
James	Lincoln
John	Madison
Millard	Nixon
Richard	Roosevelt
Theodore	Taft
Thomas	Tyler
William	Washington

First Ladies

Abigail	Adams
Anna (Eleanor)	Clinton
Dolly	Hayes
Edith	Kennedy
Elizabeth	Lincoln
Helen	Madison
Hillary	Monroe
Jacqueline	Nixon
Lucy	Roosevelt
Martha	Taft
Mary	Washington
Thelma (Pat)	Wilson

Classified Information

To classify means to put items together in groups, based on something they have in common.

1. Write the words from the box under the category heading where they best fit.

anger	friendship	smell	sadness
patriotism	envy	taste	best
favorite	sight	worst	responsibility

Ideas

Emotions

Senses

Opinions

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

2. Write a category name for each group.

_____	_____	_____	_____
car	soar	cube	vanilla
boat	glide	sphere	chocolate
train	float	cylinder	cherry
plane	hover	cone	grape

3. Write four words that fit into each category.

Weather Words

Careers

Values

Countries

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

4. Write the names of four categories of your own. List four words that fit into each category.

_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Football Facts and Opinions

A fact is a sentence that can be proven.

Many football games are played on Sundays.

An opinion is what someone thinks about something. It cannot be proven.

Sunday is the best day of the week to play football

Read the sentences. On the blanks, write F for fact or O for opinion.

1. ____ The best football website is www.nfl.com.
2. ____ A field goal is worth three points in football.
3. ____ Professional football players are overpaid.
4. ____ Professional football players are underpaid.
5. ____ Being a professional football player is the best occupation.
6. ____ The only important player on a football team is the quarterback.
7. ____ A football field is 100 yards long.
8. ____ The Houston Oilers moved to Tennessee and became the Titans.
9. ____ A touchdown is worth six points.

10. Write four sentences that are facts.

11. Write four sentences that are opinions.

