Key Words

brook
stream
river

Once a little fish swam in a little brook. He splashed in the cool water. One day he wiggled his tail and swam away. As he swam, his path in the water grew wider. Soon it became a stream. The little fish began to grow bigger. On and on he swam. The water became wider and deeper until, at last, it was a river. The fish was big now. He found other fish that lived in the deep water. He was happy in his new home.

Key Words

Name _____

gust
breeze
gale

The Wind saw Bo flying a new fish kite.

“I think I’ll have fun with Bo’s kite,” said the Wind.

It blew a soft puff of wind. The little breeze lifted the kite higher and higher. Then the Wind blew harder. This gust of wind made the kite fly up and down. It danced in, out, around and around. Suddenly, the Wind blew very hard. This gale almost pulled the kite out of Bo’s hand. Bo did not want to lose the new kite. He held on very tightly.
