

Table of Contents

Living with Dinosaurs	2
First Things First	3
Bicycle for Sale	4
Out of This World	5
Comic Capers	6
Incredible Inventions	7
Delicious Apples	8
Writing a Cinquain	9
Underwater Adventure	10
New Uses for Something Old	11
Movie Madness	12
Past, Present, and Future	13
Biographical Sketch	14
Let's Write a Letter	15
Games Galore!	16
Back to Nature	17
Celebrations!	18
Using Headlines	19
Summarizing a Book	20
Crazy Compound Words	21
Exciting Adjectives	22
A House Is a Home	23
Monster Mania	24
Island Paradise	25
Friends Are Forever	26
Keeping a List	27
Fame and Glory	28

Name _____

Living with Dinosaurs

Many years ago dinosaurs roamed Earth. Imagine what life would be like if dinosaurs were still around today and living in your neighborhood.

1. What would dinosaurs eat?

2. Where would the dinosaurs live in your neighborhood?

3. What could the dinosaurs do that could be dangerous or harmful to people?

4. What could people and dinosaurs do to help each other?

5. Use your answers to write a story about dinosaurs living today.

Name _____

First Things First

Often the most difficult part of writing a story is getting started. The first sentence should catch the reader's attention so he or she will go on reading. Complete the following story starters. Then choose one to begin a story on another paper. Add the middle and ending parts. Give the story a title.

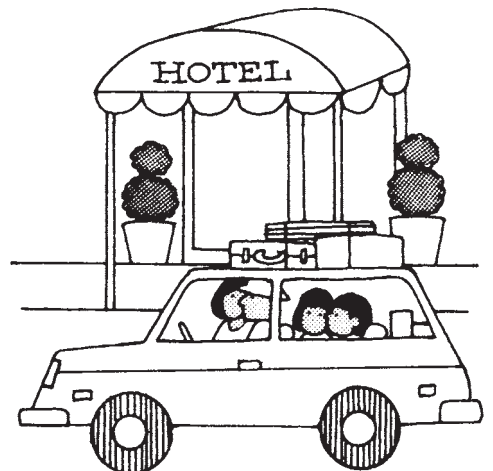

1. I was on my way home from school yesterday when suddenly . . .

2. Last night, just as I turned off my bedroom light . . .

3. You'll never believe what happened on my family's vacation last summer! Just as we got to the hotel . . .

Name _____

Bicycle for Sale

Businesses rely on ads to convince people to buy their products. Pretend you are the president of a bicycle company. You have just designed a new bike that you think is the best one on the market. Now you need to convince people to buy your model.

1. Draw a picture of your bicycle here.

2. What does your bike have that other bikes do not?

3. What can your bike do better than other bikes?

4. Why should people buy your bike?
