

Table of Contents

- 1 Reading Comprehension Skills
- 2 Bloom's Taxonomy
- 3 Using Student Assessments
- 4 Individual Activity Assessment
- 5 Oral Reading Assessment
- 6 Story Summarizing Assessment
- 7 Student Reading Comprehension Skills Assessment
- 8 Student Reading Log and Assessment
- 9 A Trip to the Farm
- 10 The Four Seasons
- 11 Terrible Lizards
- 12 Recipe for Lemonade
- 13 Color Coded
- 14 More House Work
- 15 Katie Goes Hopping
- 16 What Will Happen Next?
- 17 He Had a Dream
- 18 Happy Holidays
- 19 Baa, Baa, Black Sheep
- 20 Cause and Effect
- 21 The Rest of the Story
- 22 City or Country? Which Is Better?
- 24 Alligators and Crocodiles
- 25 The Land Down Under
- 26 How About a Parakeet?
- 28 Gingerbread Houses
- 30 Devan's Letter
- 32 Hurray for the Red, White, and Blue!
- 33 Crispy Waffles Cereal
- 34 Two Great U.S. Presidents
- 36 Yi-Fei's Hobby
- 38 Jeremy to the Rescue
- 40 A New Story
- 41 Answers

Student Reading Log and Assessment

Student's name: _____

Title of Book	Check one box
	Easy	Just right	Hard
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

The book I liked best was: _____
because _____

Assessment of Student Reading Log

- _____ Student is reading above level expected.
Keep up the great work!
- _____ Student is reading at level expected.
Good job!
- _____ Student is reading below level expected.
He/she needs to work harder.

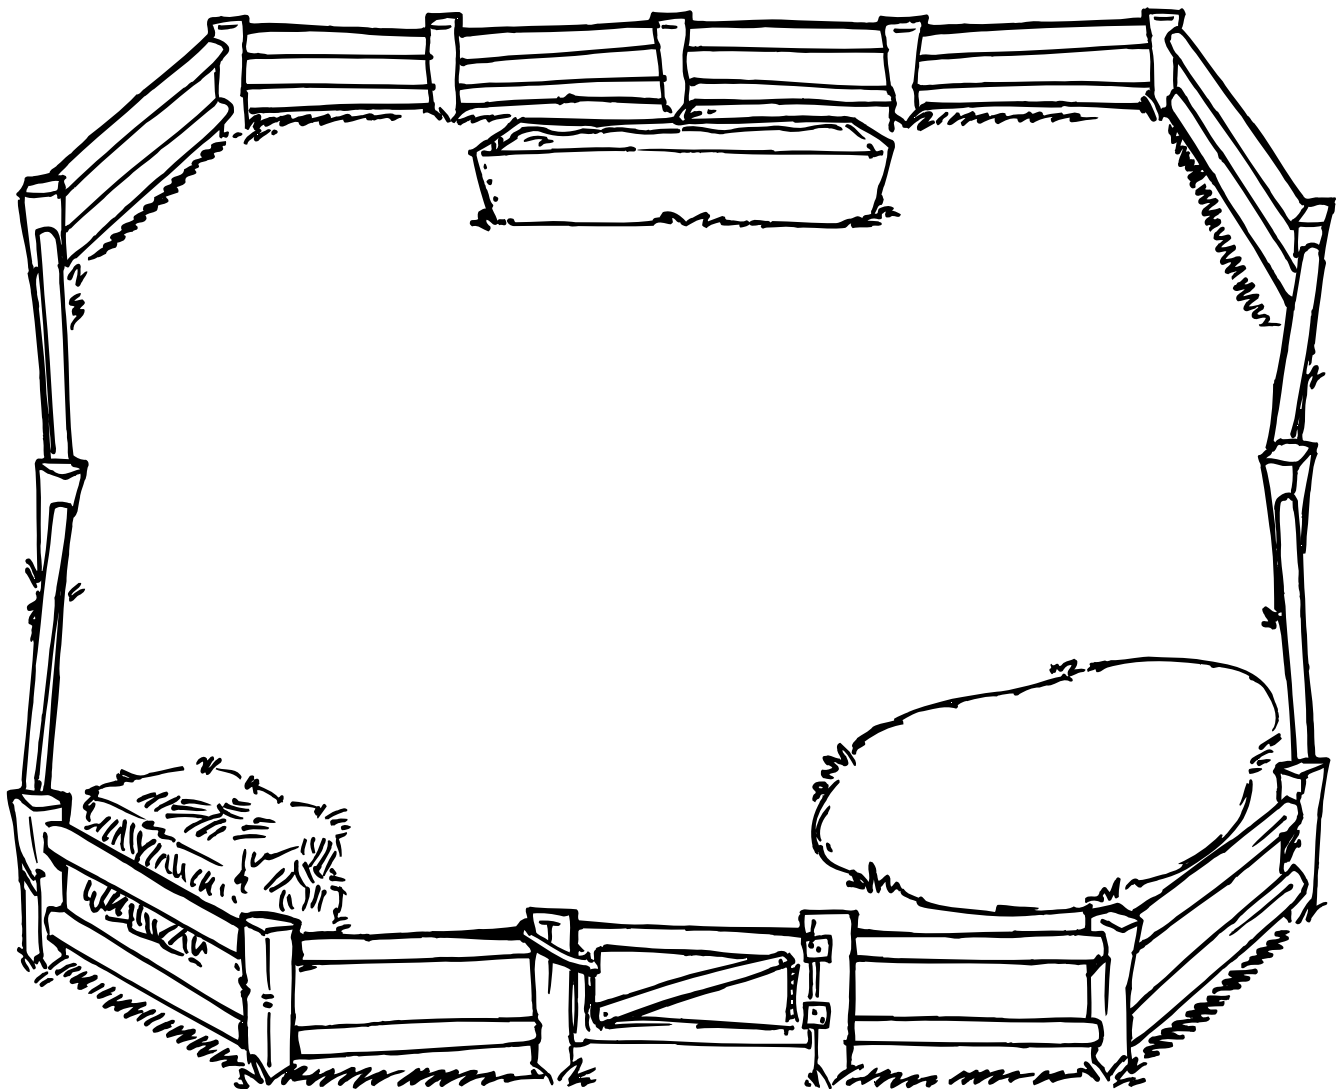

Suggestions for books student might enjoy are: _____

A Trip to the Farm

Last week Jay's class went to visit a farm. They saw many animals. Three pigs played in a mud puddle. Two ponies ate hay. A cow tried to jump over the fence! They saw a chicken and four baby ducks. The farmer also had a striped cat and a spotted dog.

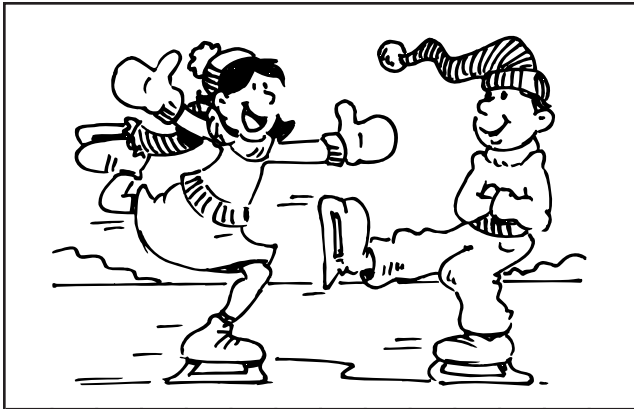

This story is about _____

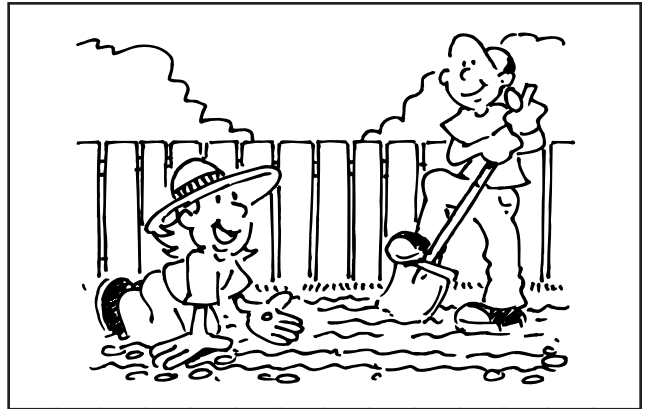

Draw the animals Jay's class saw at the farm.

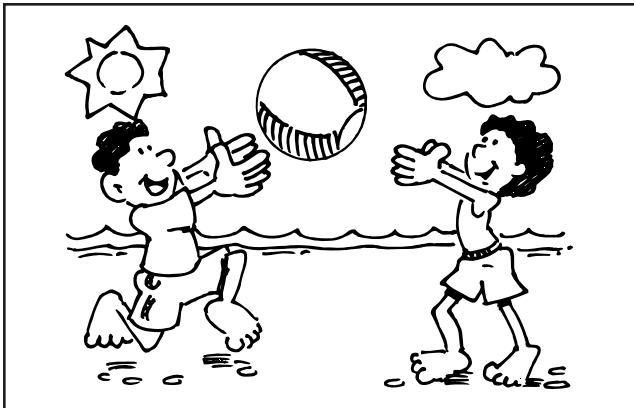

The Four Seasons

Write a title for each picture. Color the pictures.

My favorite season is _____ because _____
