

Scarecrow

Old Mr. Scarecrow
Flapping in the air,
Old Mr. Scarecrow,
Are you lonely there?

I can hear the field mice chattering at my feet,
Fat Mr. Groundhog is finding grass to eat.

I can see the children playing by the trees,
I can hear the buzzing of the honey-laden bees.

Crickets all are chirping in the fields of clover
I won't be feeling lonely till the autumn's over.
