Welcome to Canada Princess Juliana!
Suppose you are a child living in Canada in 1943. You read in the newspaper that Princess Juliana and her family are staying in Canada until the war is over. The princess and her family are from the Netherlands. You want them to feel welcome in Canada. Can you finish the letter to Princess Juliana and her family? What can you write to make them feel welcome?

Dear Princess Juliana and family:

Welcome to Canada. Canada is a great place for you to stay because

See You Soon in Saskatoon for the Canada Animal Summer Games

Rufus Dog and Rags Cat were getting ready for the Canada Animal Summer Games in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. Animals from across Canada are coming to join in the fun and the animal games.

"Let's call our friends on the telephone. They will be getting ready to come to Saskatoon," said Rufus.
"I was thinking the same thing!" said Rags.

Rufus and Rags first called Randy Ram in British Columbia.
"I am ready for the Games," Randy said, "I can butt the soccer ball over the Rockies!"
"See you soon in Saskatoon," said Rufus and Rags.

Next, they telephoned Hazy Horse in Alberta.
"I am eating all my oats. I want to be strong for track and field."
"See you soon in Saskatoon," said Rufus and Rags.

Perky Prairie Dog in Saskatchewan, was out in the park practicing with his team. He had his cellular phone with him
"We are keeping in shape. We are ready to win the relay race in track and field."
"Good luck to everyone. See you soon in Saskatoon," said Rufus and Rags.

Woody Bison in Manitoba was happy to hear from his friends Rufus and Rags.
"I will start grazing my way there tomorrow. I want to win the gold in wrestling."
