

Did You Say Dinosaurs ?

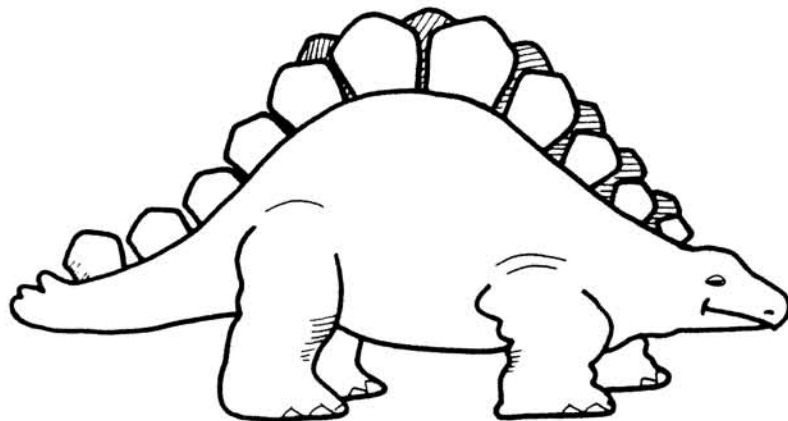

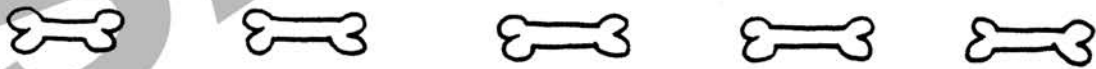

Welcome to the world of dinosaurs! Here you'll find workjobs and activities to make your Dinosaur Learning Center more complete.

The workjobs included can be photocopied or duplicated directly onto construction paper or manilla tag.

Instructions are included for each and are easy to follow. Ask a parent to help you cut and color.

The Center Book pages are for creative development. Each child can create a booklet of his or her dinosaur studies.

Dinosaurs are a fascinating topic for children of all ages. Have fun exploring, discovering and creating!

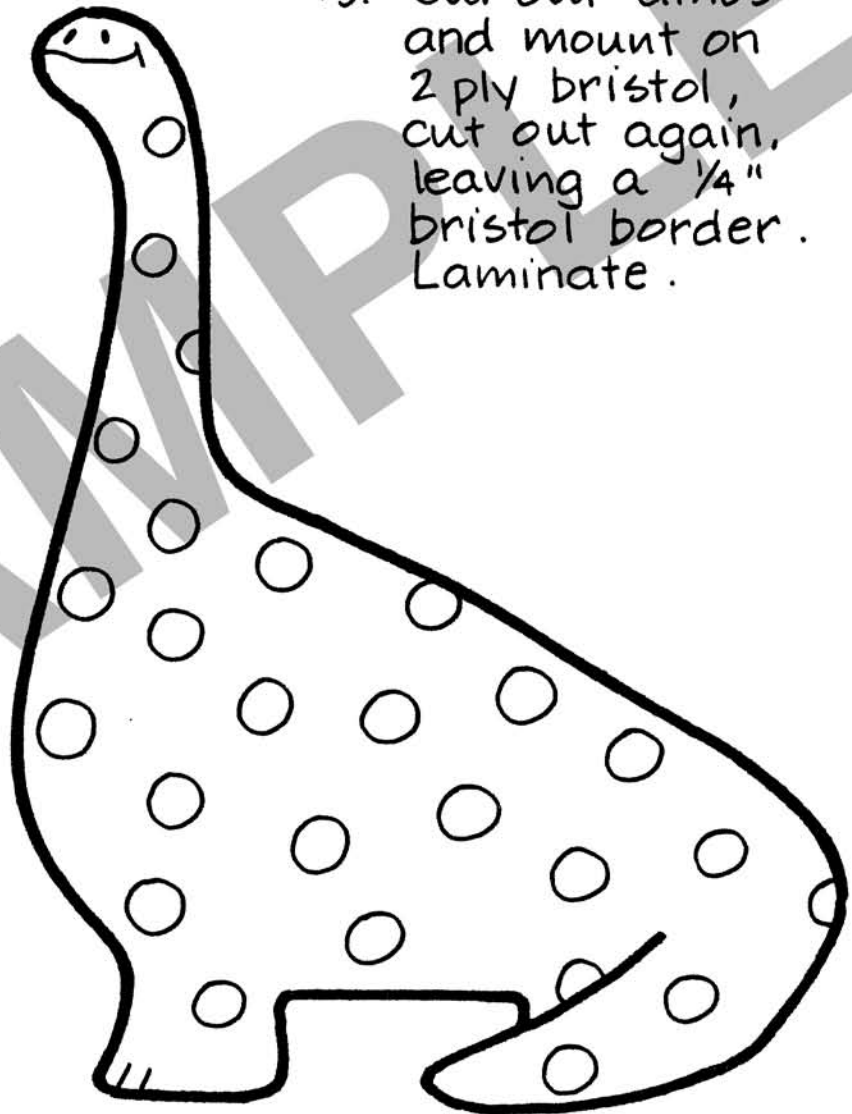

I am a dinosaur.
I have three horns.
My name is Triceratops !

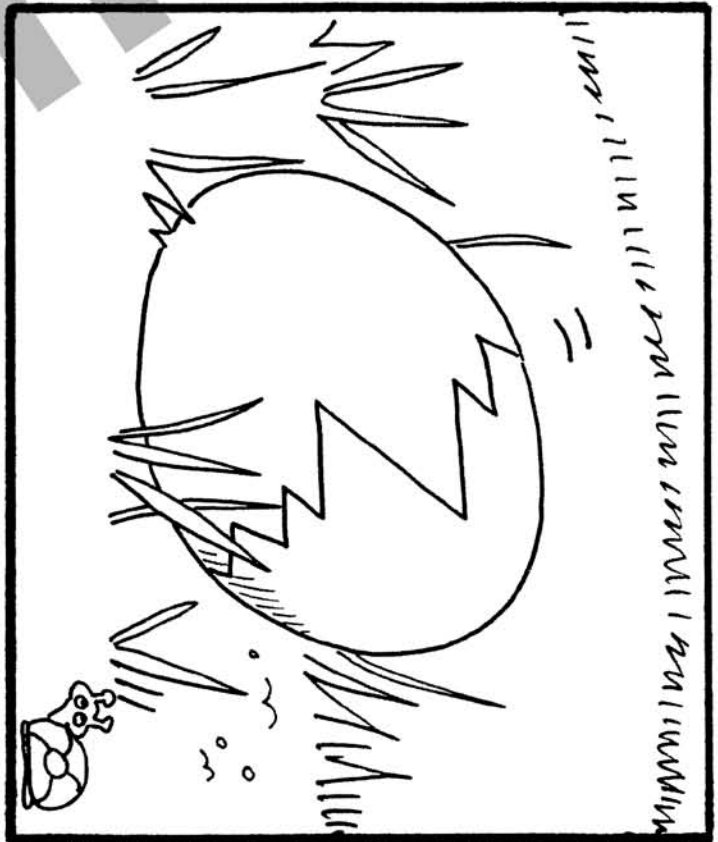

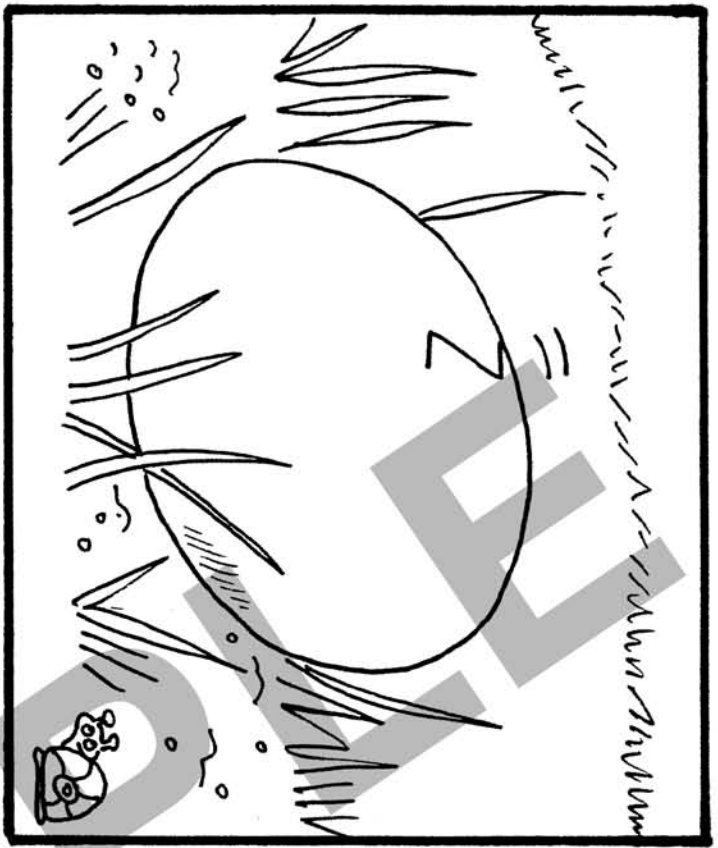

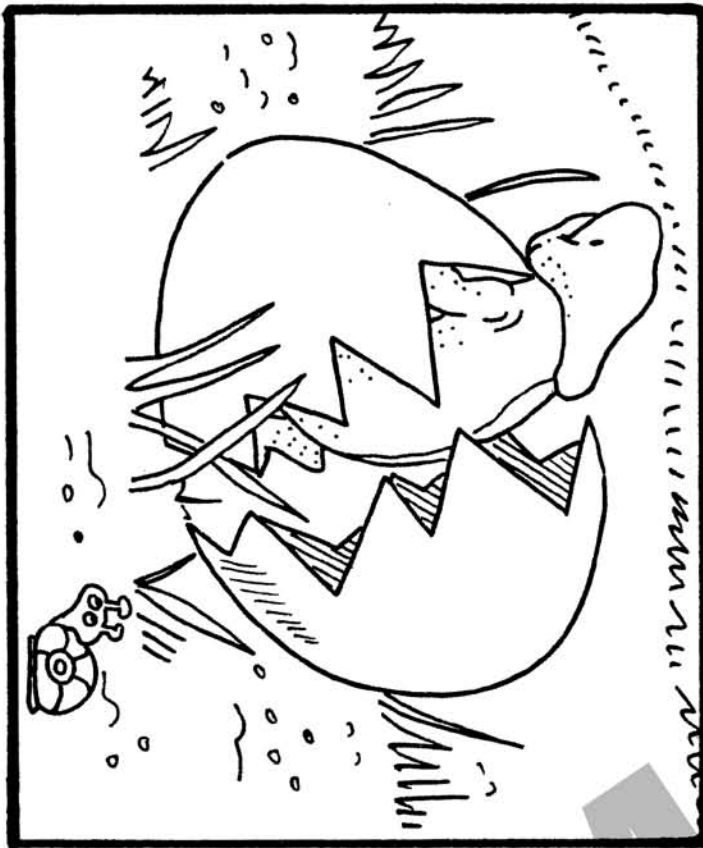

Can you finish the picture ?

4. Make 4 copies of the dinosaurs on page 38. Color them blue, red, black, yellow, green, pink and purple. The last one is colored with all colors. Use the dinosaur on this page. Color the background a solid color and the dots the rest of the colors, including orange.

5. Cut out dinos and mount on 2 ply bristol, cut out again, leaving a $\frac{1}{4}$ " bristol border. Laminate.

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS
A BABY DINOSAUR !

As-tu dis les dinosaures ?

Traduction par Cynthia Pharis

As-tu dis les dinosaures ? is translated from Did You Say Dinosaurs ?

Special thanks are given to Nicole Chauvin-King for her editing and expertise.

Included are hands on activities and centre book pages for the French Immersion classroom. Teacher input pages remain in English.

Enjoy !

Je suis un dinosaure

Student Objective : to recognize and draw 5 different dinosaurs from a suggested beginning.

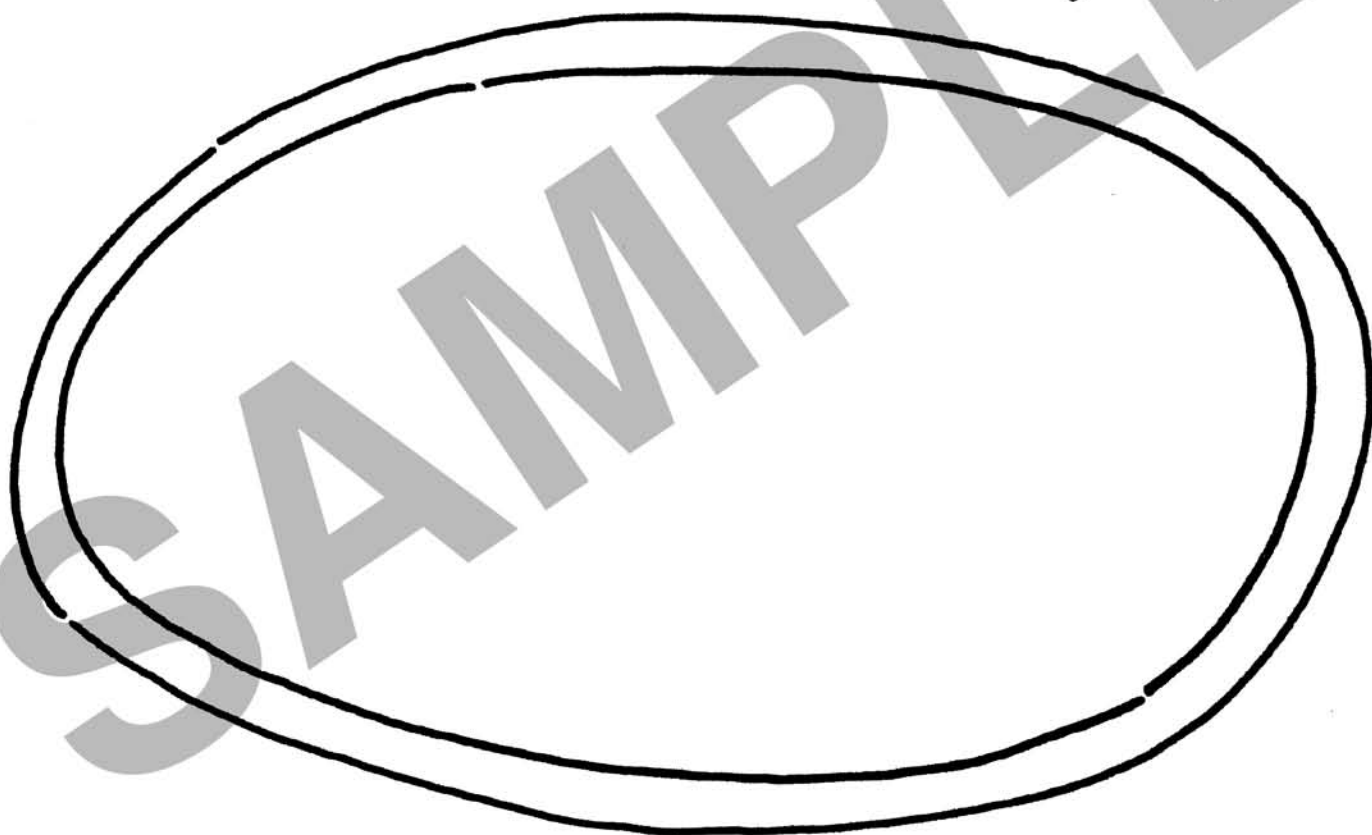

Please note: To get the maximum from these activities, introduce after dinosaurs have been studied for at least 1-2 weeks. By this time the children should be able to visualize the 5 popular dinosaurs.

Photocopy a booklet for each child. Include in center book or folder.

More Center Book Pages !

You'll find 2 activities for word recognition and another for more creative fun.

Bruno le Brontosauve aime manger des plantes pour son dîner.

Peux-tu dessiner un beau dîner vert pour lui ?

Je suis un dinosaure !

Un histoire de dinosaures
de différentes couleurs !

Ouvre le livre. Enlève les dinosaures de la pochette. Ajoute les dinosaures à la bonne page lorsque tu lis l'histoire.