

School Today

You'll need 2 bristol sheets (2 ply) in your choice of colour. Cut the bristol into 4 equal parts to give you 8 pages plus a back cover. Colour and cut out patterns and text.

↑ front cover is on the other side of 1st page.

↑ 2nd page

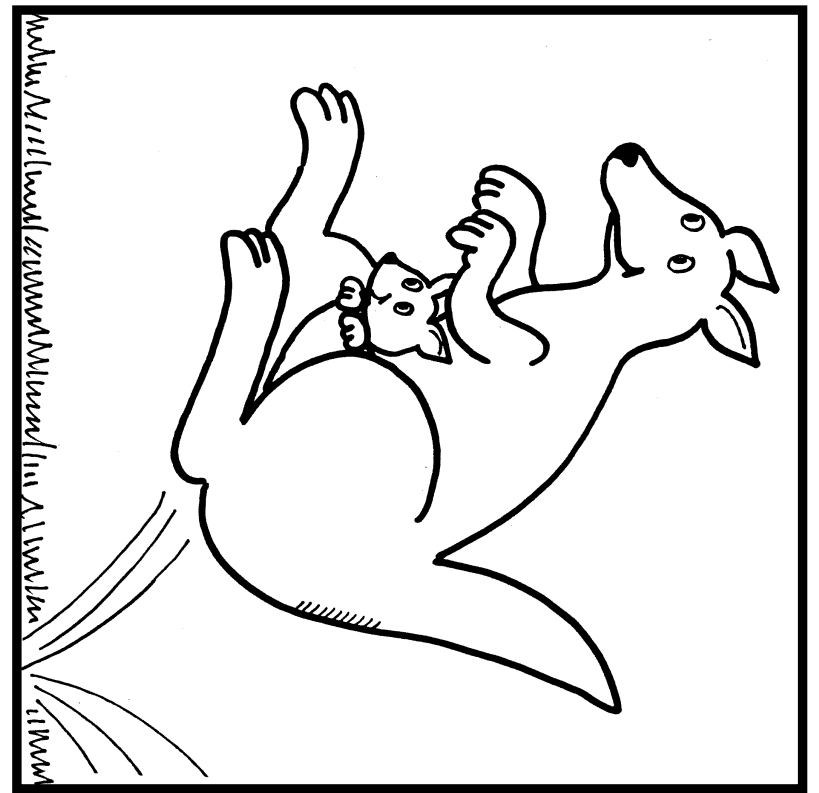

Assemble using this sequence.

Follow up Discussion and Activity

Take a survey to see how the s in your class arrived at school. their response.

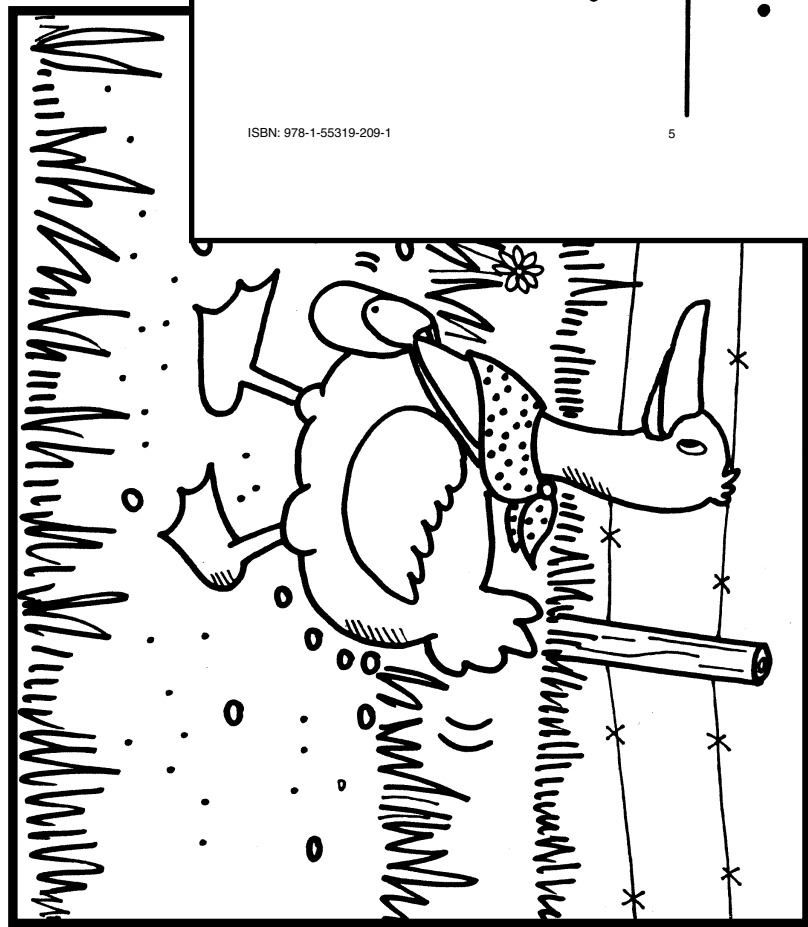

Talk about how children in different countries go to school or for fun would different animals go to school?

There is school today.
I will hop with my mother, all the way!

I will hop with my mother, all the way!

There is school today.
I will waddle down a country road, all the way

I will waddle down a country road, all the way.

a rectangular shaped as in School Today.

To make the shape book, enlarge the turkey pattern to about the size of 1/2 bristol sheet.

- You'll need 8 pages for the story and one front cover. Use orange 2 ply bristol.
- Photocopy feather page to give you 24 feathers.
- Colour feathers as indicated in text. For the last page of the story you'll need a feather of each colour; brown, purple, pink, blue, black and yellow.
- Cut out the feathers and mount on a bristol backing.
- Photocopy 6 turkeys. Colour, cut out.

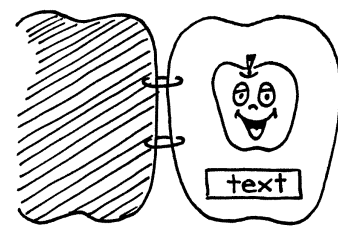

cut slits and insert paper clips

As you read the story, ask the audience to find the appropriate feathers. The remaining feathers go on last page.

If I Were an Apple - Mother Goose

You'll need 5 sheets of red 2 ply bristol. Enlarge the apple pattern to fit 1/2 of a bristol sheet. Cut out 8 apple shapes plus 1 for the cover.

Colour and cut out illustrations and text.

leave blank

Assemble as shown.

Match up the numbers with the illustration numbers.

Follow up Activity

Write the lines of the Mother Goose rhyme on sentence strips. As you read the story, ask your audience to find the matching sentence strip and place in the pocket chart.

Big Books for FALL

2. Under the Tree

Set up the same as #1 using green bristol for 6 pages and red for the cover.

More Ideas

1. As an art activity, have the children draw what they could give each person in the story. Use the sentence as a paste up or the children can write it.

Make a class book using the illustrations.

2. Reduce and make picture cards and sentence cards. Use as a matching activity.

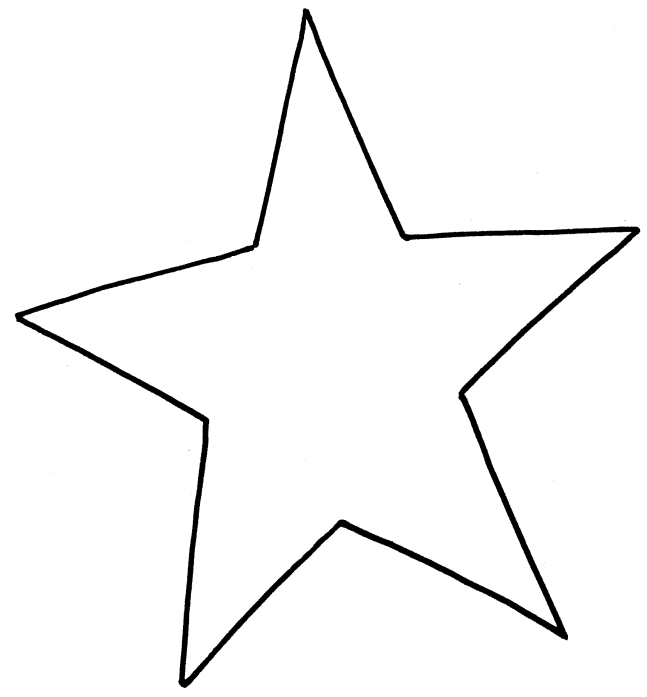

3. Make a Snowman

Set up as #1 and #2, using 9 pages of red and a coloured cover.

More Ideas

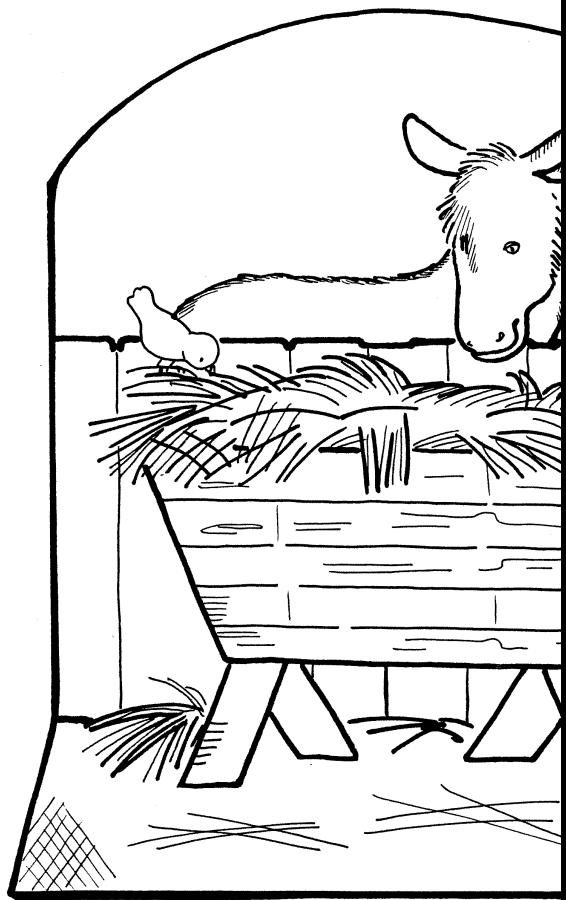

Use the pictures to make a sequence activity.

Filled with imagination

See the star... Blue bristol

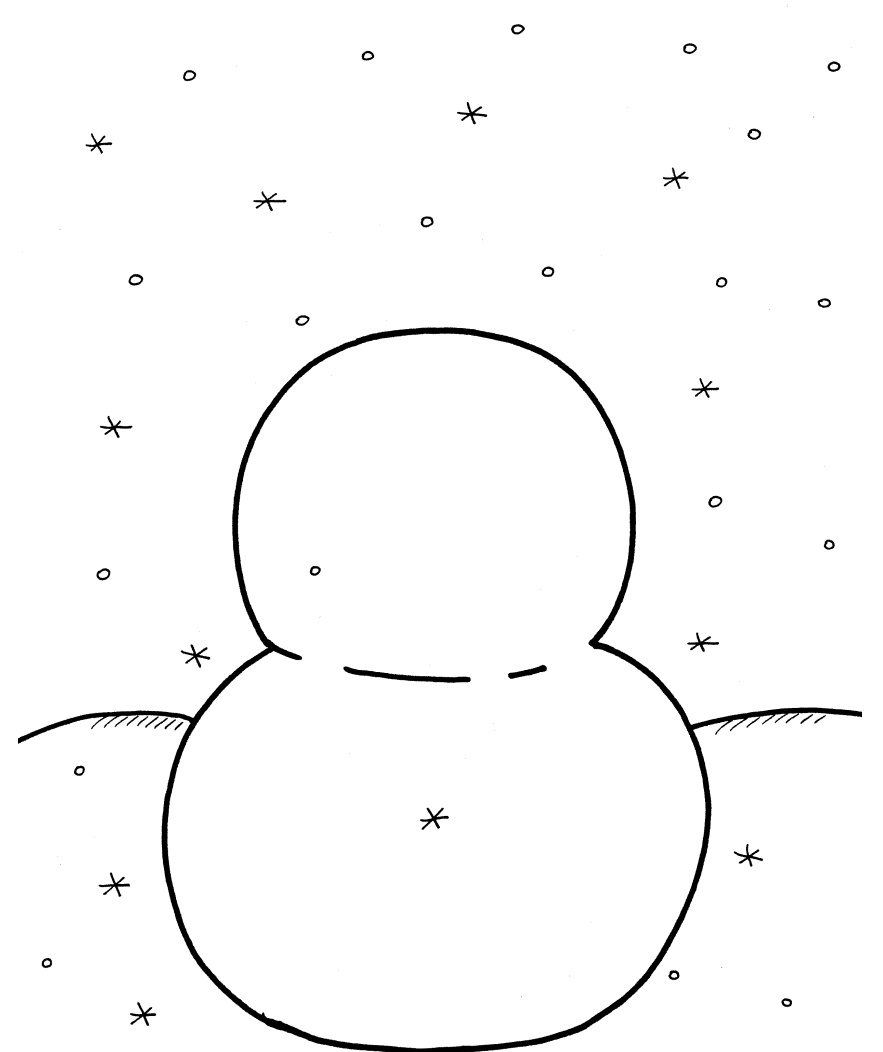

I Un
 It says on the tag,
 "To Daddy
 From me."

See the manger ... brown bristol

Make a ball,
 and round.
 ve it there,
 the ground.

ke another,
 t's not all.
 it on top
 the other ball

Big Books for Christmas

