

Five Finger Planner

A good way to organize your thoughts before you write a narrative or descriptive paragraph is to use a Five Finger Planner. You should put the main topic of your paragraph in the palm of the hand and then add a supporting detail to each fingertip. This will help you see the whole picture that your paragraph is trying to paint.

