

My name: _____

Title of my book: _____

Author: _____

Map of the Setting

The setting tells us where and when the story happens.
A map is a flat drawing showing a place.

Pick a part in your story. Tell the facts about this setting:

Where: _____

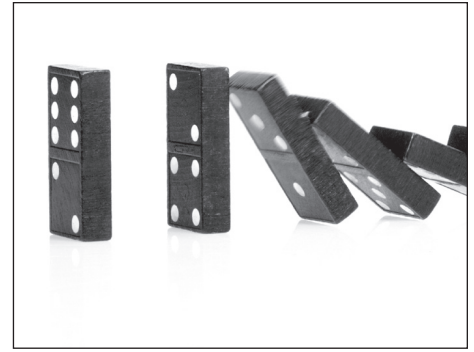

When: _____

Draw and color a map to show the setting.

The setting I have picked is: _____

A legend has pictures and words.
Make a legend that shows the things on your map.

Legend

My name: _____

Title of my book: _____

Author: _____

Why Did It Happen?

A cause is the reason something happens.

An effect is the thing that happens.

Look in your story and find 3 important events in your story.

Pick one from the beginning of the story; one from the middle of the story and one from the end of the story.

Write these events in the Effect column.

Then write the reason it happened in the Cause column.

Effect: the thing that happened	Cause: the reason this happened
1. beginning	1. beginning
2. middle	2. middle
3. end	3. end

My name: _____

Title of my book: _____

Author: _____

On the Air!

Pretend you are doing a live “on the air” interview with the author of your book.

Think about some questions you would like to ask.

Write questions for each heading:

Three questions about the author’s life.

Eg. “How long have you been writing?”

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Three questions about the book you read.

Eg. “Why is your character a boy?”

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Three questions that ask about future stories.

Eg. “Will Jack have another mystery to solve?”

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____