

In the Mood!

The mood of the story is the feeling you get when you are reading.

Examples: happy, sad, mysterious, exciting, funny, suspenseful, frightening.

Mood can be created through word and letter sounds and through repeating of words, phrases and sentences.

LIST FOUR EVENTS and tell the place where each occurred.

Write the word sounds or phrases from your story that create the mood.

Tell the mood of each event.

Event	Word Sounds	Words, phrases	Mood
Example: car chase	tires screeching	terrified trees flying by	frightening scary

Think of another way a writer can create mood: _____
